

Two Day Decompression

Day 1

Morning: Explore the charming Taos Ski Valley Village center with shops including Andean Software & Taos Sports. Grab a coffee and sit on the patio at Black Diamond Espresso.

Afternoon: Choose your own adventure in Taos Ski Valley: horseback riding, fly fishing, or hiking. Trails offer 360-degree views (all the way to Colorado on clear days) from various peaks including Lobo Peak, Gold Hill or New Mexico's highest, Wheeler Peak.

Evening: Head down mountain for a special dinner out at medley, or a family feast at Pizano's, both located on NM-150 just past the village of Arroyo Seco.

Day 2

Morning: Grab a hearty breakfast at Cafe Naranja and head out early before the clouds begin to gather (after noon, depending on the heat of the day.)

Afternoon: For taking it easy, take a scenic chairlift ride and stop at The Bavarian Restaurant on your way down or pack for a picnic with provisions found at Bumps Market & Burrito Bar. For more adventure, rent a mountain bike from Taos Sports Rentals or take a climbing lesson with Mountain Skills Rock Climbing Adventures.

Evening: Don't miss the impressive Rio Grande Gorge, stop by for sunset. Then head on to the Town of Taos dinner, drinks and live music at the "living room of Taos", The Adobe Bar.

For alternative itineraries and inquiries, visit taoskivalley.com

Visit
TaosSkiValley.com