

Two Day Decompression

Day 1

Morning: Explore the charming Taos Ski Valley Village center with shops including Andean Software & Taos Sports. Grab a coffee and sit on the patio at Black Diamond Espresso.

Afternoon: Choose your own adventure in Taos Ski Valley: llama trekking, horseback riding, fly fishing, or hiking. Trails offer 360-degree views (all the way to Colorado on clear days) from various peaks including Lobo Peak, Gold Hill or New Mexico's highest, Wheeler Peak.

Evening: Eat a rainbow trout or ribeye at 192 at The Blake and then stargaze from the Resort Plaza.

Day 2

Morning: Grab a hearty breakfast at Cafe Naranja and head out early before the clouds begin to gather (after noon, depending on the heat of the day.)

Afternoon: For taking it easy, take a scenic chairlift ride and stop at The Bavarian Restaurant on your way down or pack for a picnic with provisions found at Bumps Market & Burrito Bar. For more adventure, rent a mountain bike from Taos Sports Rentals or take a climbing lesson with Mountain Skills Rock Climbing Adventures.

Evening: Don't miss the impressive Rio Grande Gorge, stop by for sunset. Then head on to stay the night at Ojo Caliente Mineral Springs Resort & Spa, have a rejuvenating soak under the stars and dinner & drinks at their Artesian Restaurant and Wine Bar.

For alternative itineraries and inquiries, visit taosskivalley.com

Visit
TaosSkiValley.com