Three Spells Serenity

Day 1

Morning: Put the kids into one of the best snow sports schools stateside and/or polish up your own skills in a private or group lesson at the Ernie Blake Snowsports School.

Evening: Wrap your day up by upgrading your gear at BootDoctors, Cottam's or Alpine Xtreme and then treat yourself to a fine family meal at Hondo Restaurant or a traditional multi-course French dinner at the Hotel St. Bernard.

Day 2

Morning: Drop down into the town of Taos for a trip to the past at the Taos Pueblo (1,000 year old and still inhabited multi-story adobe homes).

Afternoon: Do some real or window shopping at the John Dunn Shops just off the Taos Plaza.

Evening: Take in the alpenglow sunset and share some of Taos' favorite pizza at Pizaños on the road back up to the Ski Valley.

Day 3

Day: Drive the 84-mile scenic Enchanted Circle loop clockwise up through Red River and then back through Angel Fire to the Town of Taos.

Evening: On your way back into town stop off with the family at Gutters for a fun-filled evening of bowling & wood fired pizza. There's an arcade for the kids too and a full bar for the adults.
